Features of La Grange College

FACULTY. The faculty of La Grange College is composed of teachers who have had training in the leading institutions of this country and Europe. They are selected for their personality, training, and experience, as well as for their scholarship.

CURRICULUM. Standard four-year courses leading to the A.B. and B.S. degrees. Fifteen units required for admission to any department.

SPECIAL DEPARTMENTS. L. C. takes great pride in her special departments. The Department of Music offers Piano, Violin, Voice, Pipe Organ, Harmony, and the privilege of orchestral work to those qualified. All special teachers hold diplomas from well-known conservatories. Expression and Art are exceptionally fine.

EQUIPMENT. Much attention is paid to the welfare and comfort of students. Every dormitory room has the modern conveniences of electric light, steam heat, and running water.

PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT. A large gymnasium, swimming pool, and athletic field provide ample facilities for indoor exercise and outdoor sports.

ALUMNÆ. The alumnæ of La Grange College now number over twelve hundred, among whom are many who have become distinguished by their services to humanity. Special attention is directed to the roll of L. C. alumnæ.

ATMOSPHERE AND INFLUENCES. The atmosphere of life here is distinctly religious. The college is the property of the M. E. Church, South. L. C. has interesting literary societies, inspiring mission study classes, a live Y. W. C. A., enthusiastic athletic organizations, and a delightful social life.

LOCATION. La Grange is located among the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, at an elevation of eight hundred thirty-two feet above the sea level. No malaria. Campus commands a magnificent view. Seventy miles from Atlanta, on A. & W. P. and A. B. & A. railroads.

Every opportunity is offered for the attainment of culture, character, and refinement in the association of sympathetic teachers and congenial companions.
